

Box Office Information

Information about the whole programme is available online at www.edingtonarts.org as and when it becomes available. You can also join our mailing list from the website, so we can give you the latest information about concerts. Keep looking!

Tickets are generally £20 front nave, £15 rear nave and £10 sides. 18 and under come free. There is a 10% discount for Edington Angels.

Please note, if you buy your ticket on the door, you will need to add £2 per ticket.

Email sue@edingtonarts.org or phone Chrissy on 01380 831256 to reserve your tickets. It would help us greatly if you can arrange payment well in advance of the concert; we cannot guarantee your seat until we receive payment.

Edington Angels

We hope you will enjoy the variety and high standard of music brought to you by Edington Arts. To help us continue to develop our artistic programme, why not support us by joining our loyal and committed band of Edington Angels?

In return for a modest annual payment of £30 (individual) or £50 (joint), Angels receive a 10% reduction per ticket on each event, and an annual pre-concert get-together with the night's performers.

We will also apply priority booking for those concerts where there is significant pressure on seats, such as the Advent Concert.

The subscription can be GiftAided, and can be paid by Standing Order. Please contact our Treasurer, Sue Lowery, 01380 871549 or sue@edingtonarts.org for more information, or pick up a leaflet from the church.

Saturday 13th October 2018 The Voskresenije Choir

Eight men and women drawn from St Petersburg's Cathedral Choirs and the Mariinsky Theatre present sacred Russian music and traditional folk songs. Enjoy the authentic Russian vocal sound, including a basso profundo with the deepest voice in St Petersburg! Edington is part of the choir's third UK tour.

Saturday 1st December 2018, The Choir of Keble College, Oxford

The Edington Arts annual Advent Concert has become the most popular event in our calendar. Under the direction of Matthew Martin, this choir is fast joining the ranks of the elite collegiate choirs and we look forward to another programme of sublime Advent and Christmas music sung to an exceptional standard.

Saturday 30th March 2019, 2.30pm, Claire Jones & Chris Marshall

We are delighted to welcome back the talented harpist Claire Jones, this time with her percussionist/composer husband Chris Marshall. An interesting and enjoyable mix of classical and contemporary music. which will be followed by tea and cakes.

Saturday 18th May 2019, 10-5pm Choral Workshop lead by Paul Brough.

Paul Brough is one of the country's leading choral conductors, He is Principal Guest Conductor of the BBC Singers, and Director of the Consort at the Edington Music Festival in 2018. He will work on the 'Ave Maria' by Robert Parsons (1535-1571/2) and a piece of Purcell.

Saturday 22nd June 2019 Sansara

Described as 'the a capella sound of the future' by Peter Phillips (Tallis Scholars), Sansara is the award-winning vocal ensemble taking the choral world by storm. Several of its members are past choristers at the Edington Music Festival. Expect an interwoven programme of Tudor and modern masterpieces from Oxford's libraries, breathtakingly interpreted. This concert will be part of the choir's 'Music of the Spires' series in Oxford.

Saturday 5th October 2019 An Evening with Craig Ogden

Australian born guitarist Craig Ogden is one of the most exciting artists of his generation, and a witty and knowledgeable raconteur. He is one of the UK's most recorded guitarists, as well as one of Classic FM's most played artists. He is

Head of Guitar at the Royal Northern College of Music, and has a huge international career as a concerto and chamber guitarist. Now we welcome him to Edington. A treat indeed.

Saturday 7th December 2019 Advent Concert with the Choir of Jesus College, Cambridge.

Ruth Jamieson - The Old Market

Under the direction of Richard Pinel, (also known to us as Director of the Edington Music Festival), the Jesus College Choir is enjoying a busy schedule of recordings, tours and concerts as well as its normal Chapel commitments. Known for their energy, verve, immaculate tuning and beguiling tone, this will be another superb evening of seasonal music.
