

Edington Angels

We hope you enjoy the variety and high standard of music brought to you in the Priory Church by Edington Arts.

Our loyal band of Edington Angels has been key to helping us realise our continuing ambition of offering live performances by interesting and talented musicians. Over the recent past, their support has proved invaluable, and is deeply appreciated.

Why not join them? In return for a modest annual payment of £30, (individual) or £50 (joint), Angels receive a 10% reduction per ticket on each event. We also apply Priority Booking for them for those concerts where demand for seats is high, such as the Advent Concert.

The subscription can be GiftAided, and can be paid by Standing Order. Please contact our Treasurer, Sue Lowery, 01380 871549 or sue@edingtonarts.org for more information, or pick up a leaflet in the church.

Box Office Information

You can find information about the whole programme online at www.edingtonarts.org, as and when it becomes available.

We are proud that we have been able to maintain our ticket prices at 2014 levels; £20 front nave, £15 rear nave, and £10 side aisles. 18 and under come free, and there is a 10% discount for Edington Angels.

Email sue@edingtonarts.org or phone Chrissy on 01380 831256 to reserve and pay for your tickets. We accept payment by BACS (preferred, details from Sue or Chrissy), or by cheque.

If you are less abled and would prefer to be allocated seating with a companion at the end of a row, please tell our Box Office duo when booking.

Calendar 2023

Concert Calendar 2023

Saturday 18th March at 2.30pm

The De Beauvoir Trio

We are delighted to be able to rekindle our association with IMS-Prussia Cove, the extraordinary international charity which provides masterclasses for supremely talented string instrumentalists, given by the world's top musicians.

The De Beauvoir Trio— violinist Enyuan Khong, cellist Charlotte Kaslin and pianist Élisabeth Pion— was formed in 2019. They are mentored by the Chamber Studio in King's Place, had a chamber music residency at the Britten Pears Young Artists' Programme for 2021/22, and were selected for the IMS master classes in April 2022. They're special!

Saturday 20th May 10-5.30pm

Choral Workshop, Jeremy Summery

Familiar to audiences of BBC Radio 3, Edington Festival and to choirs worldwide, Jeremy brings his inimitable expertise to the significant and resonant body of music we have come to know as Spirituals. Choral settings of this oral tradition have been gathered together by Bob Chilcott, and we shall explore their beauty, hope, despair and humour. Applications will open in February.

Saturday June 24th at 7.30pm

Martin James Bartlett, pianist

Photo: Marc Mitchell
Having launched his career by winning the BBC Young Musician competition in 2014, Martin James' career trajectory has been nothing short of extraordinary. He is now an established performer on the international stage, with consistently enthusiastic reviews from critics worldwide. His programming is imaginative and personal, and we will be guaranteed a stupendous evening's piano playing of the highest order.

Saturday 16th September at 7.30pm:
Simcock and Gould

Pianist Gwilym Simcock is principally a jazz musician and composer, but his huge talent has lead him into collaborations with top musicians in a very wide range of musical styles. His collaboration with virtuoso classical violinist Thomas Gould, (Leader of the Britten Sinfonia and a highly regarded soloist), has developed into a series of ingenious yet accessible explorations and interpretations of the classical masters. Expect a fizzing, fantastic, jaw-dropping evening.

Photo: Aga Tomaszek

Photo: Gregor Hohenberg

Saturday 16th December at 7.30pm: Advent Concert with the choir of Gonville and Caius College, Cambridge, directed by Matthew Martin.

This will be Matthew's third Advent Concert—his choirs are always at the top of their game, and their programmes bring us the very best music for Advent and Christmas. Our tried and tested recipe for the period before Christmas will ensure a lovely evening.